

I do not want to see the cross ownership rules change. If competition is good for other industries then it should be good for media. A democracy needs a diverse media to thrive. Changing these rules will give the American people fewer choices.